NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE OF

[1955

JAMES THOMAS BEAN

James T. Bean

James Thomas, son of Rev. James T. and Ruth (Frisbie) Bean, was born at Rome, Indiana, April 28, 1872. His father was a local preacher, serving as a chaplain in the Civil War and later conducting an academy at Rome. From boyhood Thomas was active in the work of the church. To better prepare himself for Christian service he entered DePauw University, graduating in the class of 1904. Later he was honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity by his Alma Mater.

While in college he met Miss Pearl Cecil to whom he was married September 22, 1897. The home was delighted by the birth of three sons, James Cecil, now of Keene, N. H., Harold, Indianapolis, and Horace, Galveston, Texas. Besides Mrs. Bean and the sons there are seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In 1893 Brother Bean joined the Indiana Conference, serving the following parishes: Stuartsville, Patoka, Waldron, New Harmony, Oakland City, Evansville (Simpson). In 1914 he transferred to the North Indiana Conference with pastorates at LaGrange, Columbia City, Union City, Greenfield, Warsaw, a term on the Fort Wayne District, followed by his last pastorate at Logansport (Broadway). In 1938 he took the retired relationship, the most of the time since he had resided in Indianapolis, where after months of ailing health he came to his crowning on December 6, 1954.

Doctor Bean was an exceptionally strong pulpit man, his sermons showing scholarship and vital Christian experience. When serving the church he cared for every detail. In the Conference he was active on various important committees, including for a time the chairmanship of the Board of Trustees of the Fort Wayne Methodist Hospital.

Funeral rites were conducted from the North Methodist Church, Indianapolis, on December 8th, Revs. E. E. Lawshe, Rev. H. R. Carson, Rev. J. F. Seelig and Bishop Titus Lowe, officiating with committal services in the Crown Hill mausoleum, Indianapolis.

G. F. HUBBARTT

ALFRED LEWIS EDDINGFIELD

Alfred L. Eddingfield

Alfred Lewis Eddingfield was born January 28, 1907, at Rook, Indiana to Lawrence and Etha Eddingfield.

"AL" as he was affectionately known by his friends, graduated from DePauw University in 1928, after three and one-half years. He was a Rector scholar and was given a scholarship key by his fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha.

He taught school in Andrews, Indiana for one year and then took employment in the commercial department of Indiana Bell, at Indianapolis.

On June 27, 1931 he was married to Mildred Williams. One and one-half years later he decided to fulfill a call from God and the desire of his heart and started to study for the ministry. He graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute in 1936 with distinction. He was awarded the Swift Fellowship and a Scholarship from Yale University. He enrolled as a graduate student in the fall of 1936 at Yale.

While in the East two daughters were born into this parsonage home: Anita Lou, born July 27, 1939 and Marilyn Kay, born April 17, 1943.

In December of 1936 he accepted a student charge at Durham, Connecticut. By the spring of 1937 he was so anxious to give himself full time to the ministry that he decided against any further schooling. This charge became full time and he remained there for four and one-half years. He then served the St. Paul's Methodist Church at Oyster Bay for six years. It had long been his intention to return to Indiana, and in June 1947 he transferred from the New York East Conference, where he had been ordained and made a full member in 1938, to the North Indiana Conference and was appointed to the Wabash Street Church in Wabash. Following five years at Wabash he was appointed to the Trinity Methodist Church at Columbia City. On Sunday morning, January 23, 1955, during the morning prayer he suffered a stroke and died at 8:15

At the first annual Indiana Methodist Episcopal Conference, Ruter was appointed to a committee of three with Allen Wiley and James Armstrong to consider establishing an institution of higher education. While there was no immediate action, a new institution of learning was eventually established in 1837 and named Indiana Asbury. Ruter was instrumental in both the history of United Methodism in Indiana as well as one of the "founding fathers" of Indiana Asbury University which became in time DePauw.

APPENDIX

Roster of Putnam County men who served in the Union Army during the Civil War

The information contained in this roster was compiled from several official sources and is included in the appendix of this thesis as a source for future studies.

Unless otherwise noted, the information was taken from the Adjutant General's Report, Indianapolis, Indiana, 1869; other sources used and noted are sworn statements filed by the men or their families for tax exemption, cemetery records and enrollment books for soldiers and their families in the period following the war.

The roster is not presented as a complete list of men from Putnam County, but it approaches completeness.

DePauw University - Archives Documents and Photographs

Kim Richardson

About this collection

The DePauw University Archives Documents and Photographs collection consists of documents and images from the University, the local community and the Indiana United Methodist Church. Included are campus scenes, events, museum objects, people and faculty publications listings from about 1850 to the present. Highlights include the Ralph Taylor collection, a longtime Greencastle studio photographer.
