The 43rd annual Coal Creek Township Alumni Banquet took place on June 15, 1996, at the Crawfordsville Holiday Inn with 109 alumni and guests present.

President Jerry Bean welcomed the group. The invocation was given by Mike Oppy. Rosalind Clark gave a tribute to deceased members.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Jerry Bean. Anna Grenard accompanied the group in singing "God Bless America".

Eleven alumni were present who graduated 60 years or more ago from New Richmond and Wingate High Schools. Six were present who graduated 40 years ago from Coal Creek Central. Three attended from the Coal Creek Central class of 1971. One alumnus was present from North Montgomery High School.

The 1995 minutes were ready by secretary Vicki Martin. Rosalind Clark gave the treasurer's report.

Officers for 1997 were elected. They are Mike Oppy, President; Vicki Cox Martin, Treasurer; and Chris Irvin Voilva, Secretary. The nominating committee is looking for a Vice President.

Graduates traveling the farthest distance included Boyd McNeil, Jr., Alabama; Lavona Davenport, Florida; and Susan Gaither Schenck, California.

The following were recognized as the oldest graduates present from their respective schools: Frank Allhands, Wingate; Forrest Patton, New Richmond; Russ Harris, Coal Creek Central. Irene McCorkle won the oldest teacher award.

The honor teacher award was given this year to Grace McKnight. She was the band and chorale director at Coal Creek Central for many years. She was not able to attend due to health reasons, so the award was delivered to her. Jerry Bean and Tim Slafter both spoke fondly of Mrs. McKnight.

Anonymous gift certificates were awarded to Forrest Patton, the oldest male New Richmond graduate; Virginia Greenburg, the oldest female New Richmond graduate; and to Boyd McNeil, Jr., the oldest New Richmond graduate traveling the farthest. A $25.00 donation was made as a memorial by Naomi Merrill.

Centerpieces were given as door prizes. Those winning the flowers were Scott Mahon and Frances Ziegler. The two remaining centerpieces were to be presented to Mrs. Grace McKnight and Mrs. Regina Allhands, both former teachers who were unable to attend.

President Bean read a letter from former teacher, Joe Roth, of Kentucky, who recently authored a book called "Wildcats", in which a portion of the book memorialized his year of teaching at Coal Creek Central. In his letter he acknowledged those who provided information and gave support to his book.

Discussion was held concerning holding next year's banquet at North Montgomery High School. Dick Hilenburg made the motion to return to the Holiday Inn, and it was seconded by Creo Pruett. The banquet will be held the Saturday before Father's Day, June, 1997.

The meeting was then adjourned.

The 45th annual Coal Creek Alumni Banquet was held at North Montgomery High School on June 20, 1998 with 108 alumni and guests.

President, Mike Oppy called the meeting to order by welcoming the Alumni and telling them to remove their coats and jackets as the air conditioner was malfunctioning.

The invocation was given by John Bean.
A wonderful meal was served to the Alumni by Sue Oppy and Cathy Olin.
The pledge of allegiance was led by Mike Oppy.

Rosalind Goff Clark gave a memorial to alumni that have gone on. Titled "Special Persons in Life"—A time for all things, a time to die, a time to live—.

Introduction of the classes 60 years plus, 50 years, 40 years, & 30 years was made.
The minutes of the last meeting were read by Frances Beardsley.
The treasurer's report was given by Rosalind Clark.

Special recognition to Alma Rogers was given. A plaque was presented by Rosalind Clark. Mrs. Rogers made a plea to the alumni to read to their children and grandchildren. She suggested buying books for Christmas and birthdays to encourage interest in reading. Mrs. Rogers told of her experiences teaching at Jackson Heights, Linden and Coal Creek Central. She also reminisced about raising her family and teaching. Her children had different memories of that time. —Something about "Goody Max".

Letters that were read are as follows:
Marilyn Bridge Brown from Arkansas wrote about a memorial to be given in honor of Wilma Yates, to the Girl Scout Syamore Camp. Envelopes were available for contributions.

Another letter that was read was from Richard Lane in Renten, Washington. Richard had meant to give this tribute to his teachers at New Richmond last year but failed to hear the call for any more speeches. He told of how well many of the students did when they went out into the world of work and education. How the teachers all had the students welfare as top priority. Richard felt that recognition of all the teachers from our schools should be given high mark for time and effort to lead their students on to a better and successful life.

Some more prizes were given out. Phil Allhands come 2400 miles from Oregon. The oldest graduate was Margaret Cowan Booher, Oldest Basketball player, Richard Nesbit—his remark was "that he was old enough not to worry about dying young." and last but not least Peggy Lyon Fyffe was the youngest one to graduate from New Richmond.

The return mail was placed on the registry table to enable each person to check out the names and addresses of class-mates and family that were returned. This is a never-ending ordeal to track each return. If you know somebody that has moved or didn't get a letter. Please contact one of the officers and give them a hand.

The center-pieces were given to the people who had flags on their programs.
The group voted to keep the Alumni the Saturday night before Father's Day.

Mike Oppy closed the meeting by telling the group that Rosalind Clark would be the President next year.

ANNUAL COAL CREEK ALUMNI BANQUET
June 17, 2000.

The annual Alumni Banquet was held at North Montgomery High School with alumni and guests attending.

President Dick Hillenburg called the meeting to order, welcoming the alumni.

The invocation was given by Ed McNeil.

A delicious and bountiful buffet meal was served and prepared by Sue Oppy and Cathy Olin with the assistance of family members.

When the meeting was brought to order after our meal, the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Bob Watts.

The memorial to our departed classmates was given by Joan Lohorn.

Introduction of Classes was conducted by the President, recognizing the 1940, 1950, 1960 and 1970 classes. Other alumni had an opportunity to be recognized by the roving microphone. The president then invited the oldest member and former teacher, Frank Allhands 9 years young, to give a brief message. He told of how Wingate used to be a thriving town of several establishments in 1913. And he gave a few comments about the excuses used by parents as to why their children did not attend school that day.

The Secretary’s report was given by Roberta Wagner Thayer.

The president asked for comments about going back to the Holiday Inn for our meeting, but would have to be in July as June as already filled. There was little response, so the alumni will remain at North Montgomery High School.

He gave a treasurers report:

Nominations were open for 2001 officers but being none the present ones will continue for another year with the exception of the Vice President and Treasurer; however, Joan Oppy agreed to the Treasurer’s position.

Instead of the usual gifts certificates being given, the president announced the money would be donated to the WWII Memorial Fund.

Thanks were extended to the caterer’s and the bountiful food that was served. The meeting was adjourned at 9:15,

Respectfully submitted,

Roberta Wagner Thayer,
Secretary
