The Superintendent being absent, the school was opened by the Assistant. The teachers were all present except Mr. Freeman and Lizzie Hettick. The question given the previous Sabbath were all answered except one, "How long did the Kingdom of Israel last?"
The question "Where was Judas Reulied buried?" was forgotten by the Superintendent. The following was then given: "How close the word certain times in the Bible," "Which are called the two great commandments?" and the last surviving of all, "Why was the city of Shechem sworn with oath?" The school closed to meet May 30th.

Marcia Bailey, Sec.
As requested by the Superintendent, the school was opened by the Assistant reading the Thirteenth chapter of Hebrews. The classes then took their places. The teacher was present except Miss Wright. The questions given the previous Sabbath were answered, and the following new ones given:

"Who was the disciple that went with Peter to the sepulchre of our Lord?" "What kingly duties had his eyes put out, and who did it?"

How many houses of refuge were there? when were they set, and where were they situated? The school closed to meet June 6, 1875.
