CODEBREAKER (or CODEWORD, or CODE CRACKER) WORD PUZZLE

The number in each square corresponds to a letter. The same number represents the same letter.
Crack the code and fill the grid by determining which letter relates to which number.
To help you get started five word entries have picture clues, and four letters are already in place.

The fOUR ACES Puzzle

Instructions:

Cut out the 9 squares shown above by cutting along the dotted lines. The object of the puzzle is to take the 9 squares and arrange them into a $3 \times 3$ square. But there is one catch. The squares have half of a playing card on each edge. As you put one square next to another, you have to make sure that the two adjacent squares have compatible card halves. That is, one of the playing cards shown below must be created by adjacent squares. Good luck.

New Wonders of the World - Logic Grid

In 2007, 7 monuments were chosen between a selection of 200 to be the New Wonders of the World. One year after, four women traveled individually to see a wonder. Which wonder did they see?

1. The woman who visited the Christ the Redeemer is either the woman who traveled in April or the doctor.
2. Sandra traveled sometime after the woman that traveled to Rio de Janeiro.
3. The doctor is either Sandra or the woman who traveled to see the Colosseum.
4. Of Connie and the veterinarian, one visited the Christ the Redeemer and the other traveled in July.
5. Gladys is a veterinarian.
6. The musician traveled one month before the woman who traveled to Mexico.
7. Gladys traveled one month after the musician.

Just as in a regular sudoku, the rows and columns must still contain one and only one of the digits. However, as you can see, instead of the usual regularly shaped subareas, known as nonets, the boxes are irregularly shaped.
Just as in a standard sudoku, you may only put one of each of the digits in these subareas.
