(b) When in glass bottles holding more than 4 ounces, the total quantity sent in one parcel shall not exceed 16 ounces liquid measure. The bottle must be very strong and must be inclosed in a block or tube of metal, wood, papier-mâché or similar material; and there must be provided between the bottle and the block or tube a cushion of cotton, felt, or other absorbent. The block or tube, if of wood or papier-mâché, must be at least one-eighth of an inch thick for bottles holding 8 ounces or less, and at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick for bottles holding more than 8 ounces. The block or tube must be rendered watertight by an application on the inside of paraffin or other suitable substance and must be closed by a screw-top cover with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half complete turns before it will come off. The cover must be provided with a washer, so that no liquid could escape if the bottle should be broken. Any number of bottles separately packed as herein prescribed may be included in a single package if the limit of weight and size for fourth-class matter be not exceeded.

(c) Bottles containing liquid may also be packed in strong and tight receptacles of wood, metal, or waterproof corrugated pasteboard. Space must be left all around the bottle, which must be filled with bran, sawdust, or other absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the liquid if the bottle should get broken.

(d) When in a metal container, the weight limit of the parcel is the same as for other fourth-class matter. The container must be securely sealed and inclosed in a strong box.

(e) When in parcels weighing more than 20 pounds, mailable liquids in securely sealed glass bottles or metal cans will be accepted for mailing to offices in the first and second zones when packed in strong boxes and surrounded with sawdust or other suitable substances to protect the contents from breakage. All such packages to be marked "FRAGILE—THIS SIDE UP," or with similar inscriptions and to be transported outside of mail bags.

All packages containing liquid must be marked "FRAGILE."

Fragile Articles.—Articles easily broken must be very securely wrapped for safe transmission. Among such articles are: Amber, cakes, candies, china, combs, clocks, delicate mechanisms, fans, flowers, fountain pens, hats, instruments of precision, millinery, musical instruments, pipes, plaster-of-paris articles, plumes, pottery, porcelain, phonographs and phonograph records, test tubes, typewriters, watches, wax articles, etc.

Glass, crochery, fragile toys, and other fragile articles must be so packed as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces from the packages if broken in transit.

Cigars should be packed in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar.

Maps, drawings, paintings, etc., must be suitably protected with stout material to prevent damage. When not flat, they should be rolled around a stout stick and carefully wrapped or inclosed in a strong pasteboard tube.

All such articles should be marked "FRAGILE."

Eggs will be accepted for local delivery when so packed in a basket or other container as to prevent damage to other mail.

Eggs will be accepted for mailing regardless of distance, when each egg is separately wrapped and surrounded with excelsior, cotton, or other suitable material and packed in a strong container made of double-faced corrugated pasteboard, metal, wood, or other suitable material and wrapped so that nothing can escape from the package. All such parcels shall be labeled "EGGS."

Eggs in parcels weighing more than 20 pounds will be accepted for mailing to offices in the first and second zones when packed in crates, boxes, baskets, or other containers having tight bottoms to prevent the escape of anything from the packages and so constructed as properly to protect the contents. Such packages to be marked "EGGS—THIS SIDE UP," and to be transported outside of mail bags.

Perishable Articles.—Parcels containing perishable articles shall be marked "PERISHABLE." It is advisable that such parcels be sent as special-delivery matter by affixing stamps for the special-delivery fee in addition to the regular postage, thus expediting their delivery. Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery shall not be accepted for mailing.

Butter, lard, and perishable articles, such as fish, fresh meats, dressed fowls, vegetables, fruits, berries, and articles of a similar nature which decay quickly, when so packed or wrapped as to prevent damage to other mail, will be accepted for local delivery either at the office of mailing or on any rural route starting therefrom. When inclosed in an inner cover and a strong outer cover of wood, metal, heavy corrugated pasteboard, or other suitable material, and wrapped so that nothing can escape from the package, they will be accepted for mailing to all offices to which in the ordinary course of mail they can be sent without spoiling.

Butter, dressed fowls, vegetables, fruits, and other perishable articles in parcels weighing more than 20 pounds will be accepted for mailing to offices in the first and second zones when suitably wrapped or inclosed and packed in crates, boxes, or other suitable containers having tight bottoms to prevent the escape of anything from the package, and so constructed as properly to protect the contents. All such parcels to be transported outside of mail bags.

Vegetables and fruits which do not decay quickly will be accepted for mailing to any zone if packed so as to prevent damage to other mail.

Forwarding and Return.—A new prepayment of postage at the rate applicable between the forwarding office and the one to which fourth-class matter is to be forwarded must be made by the addressee or by some one for him each time it is forwarded. A new prepayment must likewise be made before undeliverable fourth-class matter may be returned to the sender.

Requests for Further Information should be addressed as follows:

Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Classification, relative to the classification and admissibility of matter as parcel post mail, rates of postage, limit of weight and size, permissible inclosures and additions, attaching communication to parcels, etc., and for additional copies of this circular.

Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Registered Mails, relative to the insurance and "C. O. D." features.

Second Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Railway Mail Service, relative to the admissibility to the mails and wrapping of matter which from its form or character would be liable to injure the mails or the person of postal employees.

TABLE OF DAYS BETWEEN TWO DATES. A TABLE OF THE NUMBER OF DAYS BETWEEN ANY TWO DAYS WITHIN TWO YEARS.

FRI 254

Table with columns for Day Mo (Jan-Dec) and Day Mo (Jan-Dec). Rows represent days of the month from 1 to 31. Includes handwritten 'FRI' and '254' in the top left corner.

The above table applies to ordinary years only. For leap year, one day must be added to each number of days after February 28. EXAMPLE.—To find the number of days between June 8, 1902, and February 16, 1903. The figures opposite the third day in the first June column are 134; those opposite the sixteenth day in the second February column are 422. Subtract the first from the second product—4, e. 134 from 422, and the result is 288, the number of days between the two dates.

Weight per Bushel of Grain, Etc.

The following Table shows the number of pounds per bushel required, by the law or custom, in the sale of articles specified in the several States of the Union.

BUSINESS LAW IN DAILY USE.

The following compilation of business law contains the essence of a large amount of legal verbiage:—
 If a note is lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it, if the consideration for which it was given and the amount can be proven.
 Notes bear interest only when so stated.
 Principals are responsible for the acts of their agents.
 Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm, except in cases of special partnership.
 Ignorance of the law excuses no one.
 The law compels no one to do impossibilities.
 An agreement without consideration is void.
 A note made on Sunday is void.
 Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced.
 A note by a minor is void.
 A contract made with a minor is void.
 A contract made with a lunatic is void.
 A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected.
 It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.
 Signatures made with a lead pencil are good in law.
 A receipt for money is not always conclusive.
 The acts of one partner bind all the rest.
 "Value received" is usually written in a note, and should be, but is not, necessary. If not written it is presumed by the law, or may be supplied by proof.
 The maker of an "accommodation" bill or note (one for which he has received no consideration, having lent his name or credit for the accommodation of the holder) is not bound to the person accommodated, but is bound to all other parties, precisely as if there was a good consideration.
 No consideration is sufficient in law if it be illegal in its nature.
 Checks or drafts must be presented for payment without unreasonable delay.
 Checks or drafts should be presented during business hours, but in this country, except in the case of banks, the time extends through the day and evening.
 If the drawer of a check or draft has changed his residence, the holder must hold due or reasonable diligence to find him.
 If one, who holds a check as payee or otherwise transfers it to another, he has a right to insist that the check be presented that day, or, at the farthest, on the day following.
 A note indorsed in blank (the name of the indorser only written) is transferable by delivery, the same as bonds payable to bearer.
 Where the time of payment of a note is not inserted, it is held payable on demand.
