Weir-Krout Reunion 1960

40th

The Weir-Krout families held their 40th reunion on Sunday Sept. 11th in the Weir grove. A basket dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour. Mrs. Walter Totherok returned thanks.

The business meeting was called to order by the president Raymond Grimes. Bills were allowed and paid. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows. Pres. Austin Farley, vice pres. Wilmer Keller. Mrs. Lora Farley was retained as Sec. Treas. Two contests were enjoyed by the children, with Rodger Lee Perry and Dottie Farley as winners. Prizes were awarded to the oldest lady, Mrs. Lyda Lewellen 84 and Mr. H. A. Vanclave, the oldest man at 82, both of Crawfordville. Little Miss Charlean Nichols of Alamo the youngest baby age 11 mos. Glen Hall from the state of Montana coming the farthest distance. Carl Bemarto and Austin Farley won gate prizes.

Mrs. Grace (Weir) Alfred of Uevay, Ind. gave an interesting talk and explained how the reunion was started. In Nov. 1919 Mrs. Lizzie J. Weir entertained at a patch in dinner for the soldier boys and a few relatives and friends. The following year the first reunion was held and included the Krout families. This year we honored the men namely, Clyde Weir of Urbana, Ill. Ora Miles of Quersville, Carl Keller and Roy Weir of Crawfordville, and Wilmer Keller of Union Chapel. Due to illness Ora Miles and Carl Keller were not present.

Wilmer Keller read a poem, "Some Forty Years Ago". Dottie Farley read the poem "Little Brown Hands" written by Mary Hannah Krout at the age of 15.

Cont. Instrumental music was furnished by members of the Ueir-Krout families the remainder of the afternoon which was enjoyed by everyone.

All left late in the evening, hoping to meet again next year the same place and date for a bigger and better reunion.
